In cooperation with

Inclusion Chilliwack Society

The Sunshine Community Garden, in cooperation with the Inclusion Chilliwack Society, is a garden for the community, by the community!

We Are Organic!

The Sunshine Community Garden uses no pesticides! We encourage compost and other organic fertilizers.

FAQ's

? What is the Community Garden all about?

The Community Garden is a group of individuals and families of diverse backgrounds who choose to garden together. We are comprised of people of all cultures, skills, and abilities, both with little or lots of garden experience.

? How many plots can I get?

Sunshine Community Garden accommodates as many gardeners as possible. This distribution of plots is based on the number of gardeners in the given growing season.

? What kind of commitment am I making?

As a gardener, you are responsible for the maintenance of your plot and adjacent area (watering, weeding, and removal of dead plants). Gardeners are also expected to volunteer 8 hours annually.
